Betty-Ann joined us in 2003 with more than 15 years of experience in civil and family litigation and criminal law.

As a senior litigation law clerk, Betty-Ann has been involved in all facets of the firm's civil and commercial litigation practice areas. She is also a member of our administrative law team where she applies her analytic, interviewing and investigative skills to assist counsel in the prosecution of professional discipline and academic misconduct cases. She frequently testifies about her investigative findings at Tribunal hearings.

Betty-Ann continues to augment her credentials through continuing education in Internet developments, digital photography, professional writing for web and print based audiences and advanced interviewing skills.
